HYACINTH

AIDS Foundation

helps people live with HIV, slows the spread of the epidemic, and serves as a critical voice in the public debate surrounding AIDS in New Jersey

Dear Ms. McDale,

Thank you for selecting Hyacinth AIDS Foundation as a benefitting organization of an upcoming special event. At Hyacinth, we don't believe AIDS is a gay issue. Or a minority issue. Or a poverty issue. AIDS is a social justice issue.

Donors to Hyacinth are Agents for Change because you help us address this epidemic at its roots. In addition to AIDS, most of our clients face poverty, racism, homophobia and discrimination every day.

The fight for justice is the work of Hyacinth. While respecting the patient's rights, our focus is to make sure that people are connected to care, know how to prevent transmission and have access to medical and mental health care. That is why your support is so vital to our health as an agency and the advancement of social justice.

Thank you again for helping the men, women and children living with HIV/AIDS in New Jersey.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Patrick Bocco". The ink is dark and the signature is fluid and legible.

Patrick Bocco
Director of Fundraising

P.S. Eighty-nine cents of every dollar contributed to Hyacinth goes directly to programs to help people affected by HIV/AIDS in New Jersey.
